Perch

"Dine In The Sky"

Perched atop the imposing Pershing Square Building, Perch is a gem of a French bistro. The splendid alfresco setup, accentuated by fireplaces and fire pits, sets you up for what's in store in the kitchen. The restaurant serves delicious classic French cuisine in LA's scintillating atmosphere. Featuring separate menus for brunch, dinner, and late nights, it offers an unforgettable culinary journey. The regular delicacies like Ahi Tuna Tartare and Caesar Salad are dished out with flair, as are the traditional dishes like Bouillabaisse and Duck Confit. In the end, a glass of Armagnac or Calvados from its bar is enough to round off a fine dining experience.

The Ivy

"Pour les riches et les célébrités"

Cette adresse fut visitée par de nombreuses personnes célèbres et elle ne montre aucun signe de décadence. Si vous n'avez pas de réservation, n'essayez même pas d'y entrer. Son décor est simple, car l'accent est mis sur ses clients et son menu, tous venus d'un autre monde. Sa tarte au crâbe et son poulet rôti sont excellents. Si vous en avez les moyens, c'est une adresse idéale pour se fondre avec une clientèle huppée. Soyez sûr d'avoir réservé.

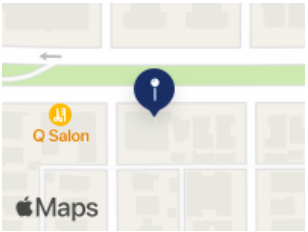
Il Cielo

"Romance toscane à Beverly Hills"



Il Cielo est conçu de la même façon que l'hôtel qui appartient à cette famille en Toscanie. Son espace est connu des locaux pour sa salle de réception qui accueille de nombreux mariages. Sa romantique salle de dîner consiste en deux jardins et une grande salle blanche immaculée, avec une grande baie vitrée de plus de dix mètres de long. Ses spécialités en provenance de Toscanie sont surtout des fruits de mer tels que des ravioli au homard et de nombreux plats de pâtes aux fruits de mer. Du poisson frais, en provenance directe du port, est proposé quotidiennement.
