The Senate Tavern on Clarence

"Neighborhood Sports Bar"

The Senate Tavern on Clarence is a casual pub and restaurant where the local crowd can be found cheering for their favorite team on a game night or simply enjoying some beer and conversation with other regulars. A great place to grab an after-work drink, the bar offers a number of local beers, exceptional wines, and classic cocktails. You can also linger over hearty Canadian and American dishes like Haddock Teasers, Burgers, Pulled Pork Sandwiches, and Poutines. Open-brick walls, sports-themed décor and paraphernalia, hardwood floors and flat-screen TVs lend this place a lively ambiance. Great discounts and happy hours also make this a great spot for budget travelers.

MacLaren's on Elgin

"Shooting Pool and Sipping Drinks"

With around 30 high definition TVs and 21 pool tables, MacLaren's on Elgin is one of the best sports bars in the entire city. Having opened its doors in the year 1997, this has become quite a renowned spot among locals and tourists alike. Sports memorabilia crowd the places on the wall which do not have TVs and gives the place a warm, lively vibe. The bar serves an array of zippy cocktails, an impressive list of beers on tap and a selection of shots and shooters. Hearty burgers, sandwiches, nachos, steaks and pizzas are also served here for those looking for a bite to eat after a rousing game of pool. You can also book the entire bar to host lively parties and events.
