Inn at Northrup Station

"Retro & Groovy Hotel"

Built in the 1970s, this groovy hotel has been restored to its former glory and now features funky rooms with bright colors, comfortable linens, private decks and a bevy of amenities. The artwork seen throughout is done by local artists and the rooftop terrace offers a great view. King and queen suites are available with full kitchens and wet bars. Although there is no on-site restaurant, the Inn at Northrup Station is conveniently located in a bustling neighborhood filled with a wide variety of food options. For a truly unique stay in Portland, this hotel lives up to the hype.

Hotel Vintage Portland

"Downtown Elegance"

Hotel Vintage Portland is set in the heart of downtown and is among the stunning hotels in the city. Housed in a 1894 building, their richly decorated rooms take inspiration from Oregon's wineries and vineyards. Enjoy dining in their famous Pazzo Ristorante. Take a sip of classic wines by the marble fireplace in their lobby before you head to your room. Though it is a great option for business and leisure travelers, it is ideal for romantic getaways as well.

McMenamins Kennedy School

"Back to School Entertainment"

Just 10 minutes northeast of Downtown Portland, the McMenamin brothers have created yet another Portland treasure here. The 1915 Kennedy School was slated for demolition before the McMenamins intervened. Now a nostalgic retreat, each room features its own charming theme, complete with a chalkboard. Have a drink at the Honors Bar, the Detention Bar, or the Cypress Room Bar. Check out the expansive menu at the Courtyard Restaurant and later catch a movie in the Theater Bar. Peruse the original artwork adorning the hallways and tour the Concordia Brewery.
