Blue Blue Yokohama

"A Nautical Feel"

Near Osanbashi Pier is a small shop with interesting interior décor that sells clothing (with a nautical look) and souvenirs such as mugs, key chains, scarves, bags and jewelry. Quirky clocks and signs adorn the outside of the building. Inside, the small first room has old wooden floors that creak alarmingly. The back room has been decorated like a ship or warehouse with decorative objects such as old diving gear dotted about. Clothing includes T-shirts, sweaters, trousers and jeans. -AH

Landmark Plaza

"Packed with Shops and Restaurants"

Landmark Plaza, which is an annex of the Landmark Tower, consists of five floors packed with shops, restaurants and cafes. There is an abundance of boutiques, many specializing in famous brands. No matter what your preferences in clothes, you should be able to find something here. There are also shops selling novelties, accessories, stationery, cosmetics and beauty products, and books and magazines. The variety of restaurants and cafes is impressive. Whether you want a Starbucks coffee, a simple burger or a full course French meal, you will find something here.

Sotetsu Joinus

"Massive Shopping Mall"

This huge shopping mall is conveniently located just inside the west exit of Yokohama Station and it has something for just about everybody. There are four floors above ground and two basement levels and each floor has a theme (or a variation on a theme). There are over 300 outlets in this complex, including boutiques, brand and specialty shops, restaurants, coffee shops, as well as, shops selling local and overseas delicacies. Although most of the stores represent popular brands and are therefore not the cheapest shops in town, there are frequent bargain sales when you can come away feeling pleased with what you have bought.
