Attic Theatre

"Small Theater in a Historic Location"

The Attic Theatre, located just above the Lazy Cow Pub, is the top fringe theatre in Stratford-Upon-Avon. The theater is now home to the Tread the Boards Theatre Company, but the site was home to Stratford's very first theater in the 15th Century, and some original pieces of the theater still remain. For entertaining theater in an intimate and fun setting, check out a show at the Attic Theatre.

Swan Theatre

"Auditorium Styled Theatre"

Flanked by the Royal Theatre Company in the same Victorian building, the Swan Theatre was originally built to promote the works of Shakespeare. The first production showcased here was The Two Noble Kinsmen which was written and directed by William Shakespeare and John Fletcher. This theatre has also seen dramatic productions by other world renowned European play writers. The theatre can seat up to 400 people and has excellent lighting, stage and sound facilities.

Royal Shakespeare Theatre

"Theater mit Shakespeare-Effekt"

Kein Ausflug nach Stratford ist ohne einen Besuch beim Zuhause der Royal Shakespeare Company vollständig. Das Theater wurde nach einem Brandschaden am Originalgebäude aus 1879 im Jahr 1926 wieder aufgebaut. Glücklicherweise wurde es durch das Feuer nicht vollständig zerstört; Teile des ursprünglichen Gebäudes, eine Mischung aus deutschem Schloss und französischem Chateau, sind auch heute noch deutlich zu erkennen. In den alten Gebäudeteil wurde ebenfalls ein zweites Auditorium namens Swan Theater integriert. Weitere Details lassen sich unter der kostenfreien Telefonnummer +44 844 800 1110 erfragen.
