Allentown

"Rich in History & Architecture"

Home to the Allentown Art Festival and listed on the National Register of Historic Places, this vibrant, ethnically and lifestyle-diverse area has become a magnet in recent years for art galleries and restaurants. The area encompasses the intersections of Allen, Main, Symphony Circle and North streets and the Theater District lies just upon its southern border. Attractions in the area include the Wilcox Mansion and the Towne Restaurant. Moreover, if you happen to find yourself here in June, check out the art festival, it draws more than 500,000 visitors annually for a reason.

Village of East Aurora

"Small Town Charm"

Southeast of Buffalo, NY dwells the small historic village of East Aurora. Founded in 1804, the Village has been home to the Roycroft movement, President Millard Fillmore, and is the birthplace of the Fisher-Price franchise. Today, its rich history is carefully preserved in museums and national historic sites. Additionally, its bustling Main street is filled with carefully preserved homes and old-time shops and businesses, including an old-fashioned dime and nickel store, Vidler's. If you yearn for the small town charm of a bygone era, stop by the Village today!
