Thida's Thai Restaurant

"Terrific Thai Fare"

Thida's Thai Restaurant serves dishes from lengths and breadths of Thailand in a colorful interior. Brightly lit and furnished with ample seating spaces and decorated with Thai paraphernalia, Thida's Thai sets the mood just right for the culinary adventure you are about to embark. From rolls, skewers, wontons, spare ribs to tempura and more, the appetizers are aplenty. They also have an array of salads, and an assortment of soups which are served in small and large portions. Thai food is incomplete without those flavorful curries and Thida's has four varieties for you to choose from. Seafood lovers can select from the menu especially reserved for oceanic flavors.

Vientiane Restaurant

"Memorable Thai Fare"

Do not let the modest exterior of this restaurant deceive you in any way because the place lets their food do all the talking. Ideal for one and for all, Vientiane Restaurant is where you can gorge on generous portions of delicious Thai food. There is plenty for you to choose from. Coconut Prawns and Battered Calamari give your palate the much needed start, follow these with some Green Curry Soup. Once you are ready for the mains, order some Pad Thai with your choice of protein. For a more flavorful affair go for the Beef Basil which comes laced with oyster sauce.

Magic Thailand

"Thai Flavors on a Budget"

Take a break from the local food and head to Magic Thailand for a delectable spread of authentic Thai dishes. The restaurant has a modest interior, and it's furnished with simple tables and chairs but is spacious enough to accommodate larger parties with ease. The menu here is extensive and the prices ensure that you try as many dishes as your appetite permits. Start with those delicious spring rolls and then try the papaya salad. The red fish curry and the curried eggplant are two of their must-try dishes for mains, in addition to the seafood stir fry. The jasmine rice goes well with every item on the menu.
