Parlour Coffee

"Smells Like Heaven"

Nothing can liven up the morning better than a cup of freshly brewed coffee, served with a smile. And that's exactly what you'll get at Parlour Coffee, a coffee shop that's as unpretentious as the coffee served there. Apart from the memorable coffee, one can also purchase Intelligentsia Tea, Keep Cup, Hario, among other things. So drop in to enjoy a cup, or pick one up to sip on the go as you head for work.

Café Postal

"A Neighborhood Gem"

Albeit small, this cafe is sure to win you over with their delicious drinks and friendly service. Located on a busy street, the exposed-brick exterior of Café Postal is hard to miss. As you step foot inside, you are engulfed with aromas of freshly-brewed coffee. If you have arrived solo, grab a seat at the counter and chat up with the baristas while they get your brew ready. There are scrumptious sandwiches and cookies to go with your caffeine indulgence. They also sell coffee, honey and coffee apparatus.

Little Sister Coffee Maker

"For an Extended Coffee Break"

Little Sister Coffee Maker is a fun place to have a refreshing beverage. This charming cafe, albeit small in space, is definitely grand when it comes to quality and ambiance. Their coffee, sourced from popular, Canadian roasters like Bows & Arrows, 49th Parallel and a few others, is simply delicious to say the least. The baristas know their way with the beans and the end product is sure to impress any coffee connoisseur. The Tall Grass

Prairie Bakery supplies scrumptious bites to the cafe while their donuts are sourced from the delightful Bronuts. They also serve tea from Camellia Sinensis, for those who are looking for more variety on the menu.
