Gallery Time and Space

"Contemporary Spaces"

The red tiled roof the Gallery Time and Space at Lavelle Road speaks of an indelible mark of the old world, in this modern city. The gallery, located next to an old English Bungalow complete with an aesthetic garden, is a pleasant sight to see. The theme, that is evident in its very name, comes out even more strongly by the juxtaposition of the art it displays and space it stands on. What started out as an ode to Contemporary Indian art now stands as one of the richest culture hubs in Bengaluru. The gallery not only holds art exhibitions but it also functions as a venue for many book readings, film screenings, discussions on art sessions etc. Artists featured here include names such as Amitabh Sengupta, Aparna Caur, F.N Souza, Ravindra Salve etc. The gallery includes works of paintings, sculptures, and photography, a window into the world of experimental art. A visit here is indeed a cultural enrichment.

The gallery showcases artworks by India's legendary artists like R.K. Laxman (the common man), Mario Miranda and other renowned cartoonists. Brimming with satire, most cartoons are based on the volatile social, political, economic and cultural scenarios that exist within this diverse country. Besides permanent exhibitions, the gallery also features temporary exhibitions by local caricaturists, which are open to the public.
