H10 Racó del Pi

"Historic Hotel"

Recently renovated as a part of the city's historical heritage, Raco Del Pi sits in the Gothic Quarter among hip coffee shops, ancient cathedrals and a maze of winding cobblestone roads. Beautifully designed tiled bathroom walls, wood floors, and comfortable furniture provide a clean, relaxing atmosphere. With the subway only a few blocks away, and the airport just a twenty-minute ride, it is easy to maneuver around the city. Between the elegant restaurant, bar, and lounges, which are equipped with computers and telephones, all of the necessary services are provided.
