Teatro Goldoni

"Real Theatre"

The Teatro Goldoni has gone through several changes over the years and is a spot frequented by locals as well as visitors. Named after the 18th Century dramatist Carlo Goldoni, it actually began as Teatro San Luca, way back in 1622. With a seating capacity of 800, Teatro Goldini is known for the diverse range of performances it hosts throughout the year. Apart from some of the most scintillating concerts in the city, the theater offers ballets, operas and various other live acts. Check the website for a complete schedule of events.

La Fenice

"Aus den Aschen auferstanden"

Das Teatro La Fenice wurde 1792 etabliert, jedoch brannte es Zwei Mal nieder und es wurde rekonstruiert. Dieses erstklassige Opernhaus ist unter den besten Orten in der Stadt um Opernauftritte, Kammermusik Konzerte sowie Ballette zu verfolgen. Es wurde, getreu seinem Namen, zu alter Pracht restauriert und nun mit hervorragender Akustik ausgestattet.

Teatro Toniolo

"The Real Mestre Theater"

Teatro Toniolo puts on an annual season of shows and concerts ranging from chamber music to Italian vocalists. The acoustics are good and the theater seating is comfortable. Its only drawback, shared by the whole city, is the lack of free parking - try the pay-garage in Piazzale Candiani.
