Clink

"Trendy Hotel Restaurant"

Clink restaurant in the Liberty Hotel will satisfy a sophisticated palate. Opening onto the street and garden, dining can be enjoying with a chic casual style. The menu has a nice selection that complements a glass the extensive wine list. If you're not having a dinner, the Clink Bar is the perfect place to enjoy a cocktail. Their brunch is also quite notable with scrumptious brioche French toast, whole wheat pancakes, omelets and more on offer.

Metropolis Cafe

"Romantic Bistro"

Metropolis Cafe is a very popular spot in the South End. With seating for 50 patrons, expect a bit of a wait. This sleek café with soft yellow walls and wooden booths, features Mediterranean-influenced, American bistro food. One of the more requested menu items is the pan seared sea bass with warm green bean, tomato, fennel and olive salad served over kalamata (olive) mashed potatoes. The carefully selected wine list pairs beautifully with their cuisine and boasts labels from all over the world.

Eastern Standard Kitchen & Drinks

"Casual Upscale"

In Boston, Eastern Standard Kitchen & Drinks has become a standard favorite for avid diners. Their immaculate decor - the tasteful art adorning the walls, the mosaic tiles at your feet, and their friendly staff make this restaurant a crowd-puller. Offering one of the best outdoor dining experiences in the city, the restaurant is equally known for its impressive drink list.
