Strip by Strega

"Impeccable American Steakhouse"

This swanky, luxury restaurant with a trendy ambience and upbeat music is the place to go to if you are looking to have a good time. At Strip by Strega, you have the option to select what you would like to gorge on, from a wide ranging list of interesting delicacies. The short ribs which are tender and succulent and the savory salmon tartare are highly recommended. Couple the starters and the mains with s'more for dessert, and you'll soon find yourself in food heaven. They also have an extensive drinks menu, but if you don't like any of the concoctions on offer, you can even ask them to make a drink of your choice. Considering how fabulous everything in this restaurant is, it comes as no surprise that the staff members at this steakhouse are quite friendly and provide excellent service, you just have to tilt your chair and you'll see the waiter coming forward to take care of whatever you need. Although expensive by Boston standards, the experience you'll have at Strip by Strega will leave you with no room for complaints.
