La Tasca

"Tapas At Tasca"

La Tasca is a great place to splurge on Spanish cuisine in true Spanish style with plenty of traditional dishes to choose from, accompanied by fine wine and sangria and lots of flamenco dancing. It is located close to the major attractions of the city making it a busy dining spot. Try the charcuterie, chorizo, Paella del Pescador or seafood paella. One can also try the tasting menus. The restaurant has a warm and friendly staff and a cozy ambiance.

Jaleo

"Spanische Aromen"

Dieses einfache Restaurant wurde nach John Singer Sargent's Gemälde El Jaleo benannt. Ein großes Wandbild einer Flamencotänzerin schmückt die Wand des Restaurants und passt hervorragend zur lässigen Atmosphäre. Jaleo ist der perfekte Ort um ein Glass Sangria zu genießen, oder einen der delizösen Tapas oder Paellas zu probieren. An Mittwoch-Abenden werden Gäste von Flamencotänzern unterhalten.

Bodega Spanish Tapas & Lounge

"The Spanish Flair"

Bodega Spanish Tapas & Lounge will cocoon you in a wonderful Spanish experience, from the food to the decor. The menu is known for its recipes that replicate the cuisine from the Iberian Peninsula. Choose from their range of tapas and paella to gorge on and accompany it with some cocktails or wines. The restaurant is covered in hues of black and grey, with splashes of red that give it a vibrant feel. The best time to visit this restaurant is on a Thursday for dinner, when guests can engage themselves in an entertaining flamenco dance.
