Eternity Coffee Roasters

"This Cup's For You"

Eternity Coffee Roasters is one of only a few coffeehouses in Miami that makes coffee by-the-cup. A majority of the beans Eternity uses are single origin from the most sought after coffee regions in the world, including Kenya, Colombia and Panama. They roast all their beans fresh on-site and then use the hipster favorite "pour-over" method to brew the coffee individually, cup by cup. The large coffee shop has plenty of comfortable seating and also serves some pretty tasty desserts and pastries to go along with your coffee.

Vice City Bean

"For the Love of Coffee"

Take a break from your busy schedule and head to Vice City Bean for a refreshing cup of coffee and a light snack. Always buzzing with activity, this is where one can enjoy a good, hot beverage and an engaging conversation with a fellow patron. The coffee house works in tandem with several roasters from across the country, meaning the coffee varieties here are plentiful, and each offers a varying experience. While the classic coffee, espresso, and cappuccino options might seem familiar, the choice of beans used to brew it make the difference here.

Panther Coffee Wynwood

"Rustic Coffee Place"

A powerhouse amongst coffeeshops in the city, Panther Coffee Wynwood never fails to make your coffee breaks exciting. Dimly-lit, cozy and peppered with light-wood tones, its rustic interiors evoke a rather casual atmosphere and sets it up brilliantly for a light-hearted snack. This is one of the few coffeehouses that employs a vintage coffee bean roaster, a feat that ensures the flavor of the beans are not lost, and customers can enjoy a strong yet palatable cup of coffee. Here you can also choose your favored coffee beans, method of brewing, and type of coffee to suit your taste.
