A popular Brazilian barbecue place, M Grill provides a novel experience in true Brazilian spirit. There is a card on all tables with a green side and a red side. The green side signals the waiters to fill up the plates while the red side signals them to bypass. The menu is richly laid out with all varieties of steaks- Ribeye, Filet Mignon and Bottom Sirloin, Rack of Lamb and Picanha. The lunchtime salad buffet is also a treat with a lot of crisp leafy vegetables that are healthy and filling. The trendy venue is a must visit as diners who have eaten here swear by the tasty food. The traditional dishes like the Fried Yucca and the Linguica are also favorites. Try the Brazilian soda at the bar, another specialty.

Gloria's Cafe is a charming and affordable eatery serving a mix of Mexican and Salvadorian fare. It welcomes one with a pleasantly lit, colorful interior, supremely friendly service and – according to many – some of the best pupusas in town. Other "must try" are the carne adobada and plantains.
