One of the best restaurants in the city, this lovely five room restaurant inside Mandalay Bay features waterfalls and live swans. Top Of The World Restaurant

"Das beste Zimmer mit Aussicht"

Für Feinschmecker, die während dem Essen gerne eine schöne Aussicht genießen, ist dieses Restaurant genau das Richtige. Es befindet sich in der Spitze des 244 m hohen Stratosphere Tower, von wo aus sich eine unvergleichliche Aussicht auf Las Vegas bietet. Gut möglich, dass sie nur von einem Flugzeug aus überboten werden kann. Das Lokal dreht sich langsam 360 Grad pro Stunde um die eigene Achse, so dass man die Stadt von jedem Blickwinkel aus betrachten kann. Die mit Kerzenlicht beleuchteten Tische sind von Fenstern, die von der Decke bis zum Boden reichen, umgeben. Das Essvergnügen wird mit leiser Hintergrundmusik untermalt. Neben der Aussicht sind auch das Essen und die Bedienung hervorragend. Ein Abendessen, das aus Steaks, frischem Fisch oder Hummer besteht, kostet ungefähr USD 30 (EUR 31,90) pro Person, einschließlich der Getränke. Wahrhaft ein unvergessliches Erlebnis.

Heart Attack Grill

"Calorifically Crazy"

Founded in 2005, Heart Attack Grill is a destination for "thrill seekers and risk takers," as owner Jon Basso puts it. Featuring a hospital theme, where waitresses are dressed as nurses and give orders for "prescriptions," this wacky restaurant gives a whole new meaning to outrageous dining. This is a restaurant where junk food is worshipped so much that its Quadruple Bypass Burger actually holds the Guinness World Record for the world's most calorific burger. These are no ordinary burgers - the smallest on the menu, the Single Bypass, is stuffed with five slices of bacon per patty. The Double Bypass, the Triple Bypass and the Quadruple Bypass are each stuffed with ten, fifteen and twenty slices of bacon per patty with Heart Attack's own unique sauce. One can enjoy Flatliner Fries or Butter Fat Shakes on the side. Alcohol and Half Liquor Jello Injections can be ordered along with the food.
