UNLV Marjorie Barrick Museum

"Echte Ausgrabungen"

Hier handelt es sich um einen angenehm kühlen Ort mitten in der Hitze von Las Vegas. Im 1969 gegründeten Museum werden Gegenstände und Informationen zur Naturgeschichte des Südwestens gezeigt. Besonders interessant ist das Staatsfossil Nevadas: der Ichthosaurier, ein Fischesaurier von der Größe eines Wales. Hier findet sich auch die umfangreichste Vogelsammlung des Staates und nicht zu vergessen der 3 m große Eisbär, der die Besucher begrüßt. Ausstellungsstücke schließen Körbe, Webarbeiten und Keramikwaren mit ein. Neben den archäologischen, völkerkundlichen und geschichtlichen Dauerausstellungen, gibt es einen Bereich für nationale und internationale Wanderausstellungen. Erholen kann man sich in einem künstlich angelegtem schattigen Wäldchen vor dem Museum, wo es einheimische Pflanzen zu sehen gibt. Es gibt auch einen Museumsladen. Eintritt: kostenlos.

Bonanza Gift & Souvenir Shops

"World's Largest Gift Shop"

Bonanza is located on The Strip. It was built in the 1980s and covers 40,000 square feet (3,716 square meters) of space. They boast the largest collection of bizarre gifts in one single shop. They also have a reputation for being very friendly and can help you find a gift for anyone. You will find a variety of items here, including a toy parrot that shouts insults, miniature Las Vegas signs that flash, and fuzzy car dice.

Pinball Hall of Fame

"Be a Pinball Wizard"

Hidden in an unassuming warehouse is what might just be the world's largest collection of pinball machines from the 1950s up through the 1990s. This Pinball Hall of Fame is listed as a museum, but is also an arcade. All the machines are operational and patrons can play to their heart's content. There is no fee to enter the Pinball Hall of Fame, but players will need to pump quarters into the machines to play. Located not far from The Strip, Pinball Hall of Fame is a great spot for anyone looking for something a bit unique and off the beaten path. Anyone can go to Vegas and say they played slots. How many can say they visited what is possibly the world's largest collection of pinball machines?

Burlesque Hall of Fame

"Burlesque Memorabilia & More"

The subject-matter of this museum may seem strange, but it is executed very well. At the Burlesque Hall of Fame, you'll find costumes, props, photographs, and other items relating to burlesque and its development through the decades. On the walls, black and white photographs featuring women in feathery, bejeweled, and fringed costumes can be seen. Celebrating the unique art, Burlesque Hall of Fame also regularly hosts events and classes. It features permanent exhibitions and temporary ones as well.

Springs Preserve

"Oasis in the Middle of the City"

Nestled within close proximity to Downtown Las Vegas, Springs Preserve is a natural park and cultural center devoted to commemorating the history of Las Vegas and promoting sustainability. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the preserve is a rich repository of desert botanical gardens, museums, and galleries. It is home to several life-sized displays, exhibits, and entities centered around building a green environment. This insightful preserve also hosts classes, lectures, and workshops built around the disciplines of cooking, archaeology, sustainability, arts, crafts, cultural studies and more. Serpentine trails cleave many wetlands and lush desert terrains at this sprawling preserve which is also home to an indoor theater and a historic photo gallery. A seamless synergy of nature, education, and conservation, Springs Reserve is a noble step towards replenishing the global environment.

Downtown Container Park

"Massive Shopping Complex"

Downtown Container Park is a gigantic shopping complex created using abandoned shipping containers, hence the name. These shipping containers are an address to eclectic shops selling local merchandise, souvenirs and more, and their creative layout simply leaves you in awe. There are also many restaurants that call these quaint containers home. Apart from shopping, what makes this place unique are the various exhibits of massive sculptures that line the park, one such attraction is the giant, fire-emitting Mantis which was again created using recycled materials. The Downtown Container Park also has a wonderful tree house and the park's open ground is used as a venue for live musical performances. This is without a doubt a must-visit when in the city.

Neon Museum

"Las Vegas' Neon-Geschichte"

In einer Stadt, die dafür bekannt ist, voller Lichter zu sein, ist es schön, den alten Neonschildern die Ehre zu erweisen. Das Neon-Museum befindet sich im Zentrum von Las Vegas und obwohl es den ganzen Tag geöffnet ist, ist es am besten bei Nacht zu besichtigen. Man sieht hier das Schild des Caesar's Palace in seiner vollfarbigen Pracht, und kann einen Blick auf das Pferd und den Reiter vom alten Hacienda-Hotel werfen. Das Museum fügt dieser wunderbaren Sammlung oft neue Gegenstände hinzu. Der Eintritt ist nur im Rahmen einer geführten Tour möglich. Man sollte Eintrittskarten für Führungen frühzeitig kaufen, da diese schnell vergeben sind.

Old Las Vegas Mormon Fort State Historic Park

"Auf den Spuren der Mormonen"

Lange bevor Buggy Siegal hier ankam, war diese kleine Gemeinde im Jahre 1855 von den Mormonen gegründet worden. Hier kann man das älteste europäisch-amerikanische Gebäude des Staates Nevada besichtigen. Der Bau wurde renoviert, und es gibt Führungen, die Einblick in das harte Leben der ersten Siedler vermitteln. Eintritt: Erwachsene USD 1 (EUR 1,06) und Kinder USD 0.50 (EUR 0,55).
