"Interesting, Varied Lunch Buffet"

This Midtown restaurant is especially popular at lunch, when the inexpensive buffet draws locals. The buffet features an array of curries, vegetables, tandoori chicken, and sauces ranging from mild to fire-in-your-mouth hot. The a la carte menu is only available in the evening, and features standard Indian curries and tandooris. Breads include papadums and chapati. The pleasant room is divided in two parts by a set of steps. Tasteful Indian art, including a spectacular elephant mural, adorns the walls.

Golden India

"Northern Indian Gem"

A pleasant Indian restaurant, Golden India occupies a convenient midtown location. Everything here works together to create a happy dining experience. The interiors boast a warm color theme and walls highlighted with a few wall-hangings. Although Golden India has a lunch buffet, the real draw at Golden India is a la carte dinner menu. Everything is carefully prepared so that the spices don't overpower, and the tandoori dishes are never overdone or dry. Golden India is especially popular with vegetarians, who enjoy the Bhindi Masala with its sauce of onions, tomatoes and spices.
