Rodizio Grill

"Brazilian Steaks"

Located in the historic Icehouse, Rodizio Grill is a popular authentic Brazilian steakhouse where you can experience food in a setup that resembles South American styled eatery. The place is often crowded, especially when the Colorado Rockies are in town, so make sure you call ahead for reservations. For an appetizer, enjoy the Polenta Sticks or Banana Fritters. The salad bar offers an array of healthy treats, while the main menu features a hearty selection of 12 grilled meats. If you're a feisty eater, then go for their 'Full Rodizio' which features unlimited appetizers, salads and juicy grilled meats! You can even host your private events here. Call ahead for more details.

Rioja

"Mediterranean Recipes, Local Ingredients"

Rioja, this eatery on Larimer Street has an intimate feel to it. Glass fixtures, a unique bar with a copper-topped surface, and the serene ambiance lend it a relaxing air. Appetizers include Steamed Manila Clams and Mint-Grilled Shrimp. Among the main courses you can opt for a Chilled Gazpacho Soup or a Roasted Beet Salad. The Muscovy Duck Two Ways and the Grilled Hanger Steak come highly recommended. You can also seat yourself outdoors on the charming little patio – a perfect way to dine on a balmy Denver night.

The Walnut Room

"Bite & Groove"

The cute little music note over a walnut makes for an impressive logo for this hip music club, The Walnut Room. There's every reason to relish the audio-visual treat that Walnut Room offers each night. And if the cheering gets you tired and you need some boosting, do try one of their signature pizzas or a modest sandwich. Their delicious quick bites and appetizers won't leave you dissatisfied. The club also plays host to private parties and social or corporate events.

Sushi Den

"Sushi With the In Crowd"

This restaurant is one of the more popular places to go for sushi in Denver. Its menu also offers tempura, teriyaki, and a variety of traditional Japanese soups like Udon, but the sushi is the best bet. The atmosphere is often lively with patrons crowding just inside the door, friendly hostesses, waiters and waitresses buzzing around, and plenty of noise coming from the dining room. The Sushi Den is known for bringing out the local trendsetters and is the place to be seen. Lunchtime, however, is more relaxed and quiet.
