Whether you are shopping for exquisite jewellery, designer fashion, chic accessories or trendy wear, you will find it at Isetan. Within Wisma Atria, it has become Singapore's biggest stores, Isetan proves to be an adult version of the kid-in-the-candy-store phenomenon. Carrying brands like Calvin Klein, DKNY, Emporio Armani, Anna Sui, the branches at Wisma Atria and Shaw House attract the more upmarket and trendy crowd. Other brands to check out are Phuture London, Mango and local favourites like Urban & Co, Yin & Yang, and Rest and Relax. For the ultimate suburban shopping experience, try out Isetan at Katong.

Tangs Department Store

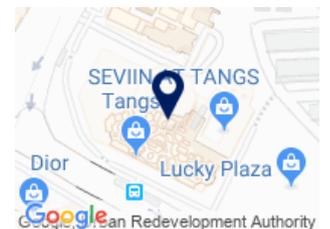

"Department Store in the Marriot"

Beneath the conspicuous towering pagoda of the Singapore Marriott Hotel is the emporium of Mr C K Tang, selling quality merchandise at medium-range prices since 1932. In contrast to its distinctive green roof and red pillars, the glitter and glamour within this mall is reminiscent of Paris' Galleries Lafayette. Five floors offer items to stock up in wardrobes and dressing tables, decorate every corner of the home and spice up any festive season. Of special interest to tourists are the silk and batik garments and souvenirs on the third level. Check out also the top floor for knick-knacks and bargains.
