Jardin Nelson

"Romantic Bistro With Live Music"

Le Jardin Nelson, situated in Old Montreal, offers the perfect setting for a romantic evening spent with a special someone. This French restaurant has a classic old-world charm to it with a beautiful garden full of brightly colored flowers and a huge terrace overlooking the streets. The restaurant comes to life in the evenings with twinkling lamps that light up the place and render it ethereal and beautiful. The delectable food further enhances the appeal of this creperie. The service is warm and friendly. Live jazz music is another highlight. The restaurant's timings may depend on the weather, so it's advisable to make a call before you head there.
