

"Best Mexican Restaurants in Montreal"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 6 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Hungry Dudes ©

La Capital Tacos

"Mexican Food in Chinatown"

If you're in the mood for a flavorful meal, infused with the traditional flavors of Latin cuisine, then La Capital Tacos won't disappoint. This hip Mexican eatery may seem out of place in Chinatown, but if the crowds that gather here are any indication, the oddity of its location is in no way a deterrent. The shrimp and pork tacos are the clear favorites, although there's ample variety to suit every taste and preference with a few vegetarian options as well. Every dish on the menu is packed full of the vibrant flavor and freshness that Mexican cuisine is known for. Stop by La Capital Tacos for a delicious meal that is sure to keep you coming back for more.

☎ +1 514 873 5255

🌐 www.lacapitaltacos.ca/

✉ info@lacapitaltacos.ca

📍 1096 Boulevard Saint-Laurent, Montreal QC

📷 by Marler ©

Escondite

"Contemporary Mexican Eats"

If you are in the mood for Mexican fare, but are tired of the usual offerings, head to Escondite for a taste of creative, new Mexican fare. Roughly translating to Hideout, the chefs at this Mexican eatery incorporate a touch of contemporary flavor without altering the original essence of the meal. Feast on inventive delicacies like Shrimp Ceviche and El Clandestino which is a smoked meat taco. You can wash down the meals with a few house crafted tequilas for a more authentic experience or go for one of their signature drinks like La Papaya or Michelada. Set in a cozy, welcoming ambience, you are sure to love Escondite, whether you come here alone or bring your pals in tow.

☎ +1 514 419 9755

🌐 www.escondite.ca/

📍 1206 Avenue Union, Montreal QC

📷 by Mike Saechang ©

Lola Rosa Cafe

"Quaint Bistro, Classy Comfort Food"

Located at 545 Milton Avenue in the Montreal's Milton-Parc neighborhood, Lola Rosa's proximity to McGill University attracts both students and locals to its vegetarian, Mexican fusion cuisine. The restaurant also offers vegan and gluten-free options. Inside is seating for 40 diners; at each table, a set of pull-drawers contains notes and drawings from previous patrons, which often include funny messages, love notes, and other mementos. Menu items range from simple salads to the famous nacho plate. Portions are small, but filling. Try the Lola's Nachos or polenta dish, and for dessert, anything will do! Meals range from CAD8 to CAD12. Lola Rosa has a full liquor license and accepts cash, debit, and credit cards. It is easily accessible from McGill Metro Station, and the 80 and 24 buses.

☎ +1 514 287 9337

🌐 lola-rosa.ca/

📍 545 Milton Avenue, Montreal QC

by jules:stonesoup

3 Amigos

"Mexican Meals"

3 Amigos is specially designed to give you authentic Mexican meals at cheap rates. Specializing in Cajun and Tex-Mex cuisine, 3 Amigos has been voted as the best Mexican Restaurant 2012. The ambiance is beautifully combines fiery flavors with a chilled-out ambiance. This restaurant is perfect for a fun-filled get-together with friends over fajitas, tacos and margaritas.

+1 514 939 3329

3amigosrestaurant.com/

1657 Sainte-Catherine Street West, Montreal QC

by stu_spivack

Tejano Bbq Burrito

"Toothsome Burritos"

Tejano Bbq Burrito brings about an amalgamation of two favorites, Mexican food and BBQ and their exciting burritos are always well received by locals and tourists alike. Choose your base then go on and select the hot ingredients, try the Spanish rice if you are looking for a veggies treat but indulge in the spiced pulled pork if you are a meat lover. Any Mexican dish is incomplete without some salsa and guacamole, so go on and add a generous amount of those. Grab a seat nearby and dig into your fantastic creation.

+1 514 303 3500

www.tejanobbqburrito.com/

info@tejanobbqburrito.com

511 rue De Courcelle, Montreal QC

by sparkist

El Rey del Taco

"World of Mouth-Watering Tacos"

El Rey del Taco is a lively local restaurant that serves up some of the best tacos in town. The charming little eatery is forever thronged with hungry diners craving a touch of Latin spice. The menu features all the usual favorites, including tacos, burritos and quesedillas, each topped with delicious homemade sauces and oodles of authentic flavor. The outdoor area is especially popular, so be sure to arrive early to snag yourself a table. The eatery shares space with a small grocery store where you can pick up a variety of snacks and Mexican ingredients on your way out.

+1 514 274 3336

232 Rue Jean-Talon East, Montreal QC

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com