Ghosts of Old Montreal

"Haunting Visit"

If you are looking for something other than the ordinary run-of-the-mill sightseeing tours, then consider the Old Montreal Ghost Trail. A historical mystery tour set in Montreal's French colonial days, the tour includes some of the city's most famous ghosts. Other tours include the New France Ghost Hunt and Montreal's Historical Crime Scenes. Tours are in both English and French.

Musée du Sault-au-Récollet

"Delving Into the Region's History"

Located inside the Cité Historia, the Musée du Sault-au-Récollet gives visitors a detailed historic account of the small municipality it calls home. The museum is situated in the Maison du Pressoir, an 18th-century house that was used as a press, a tannery and a bakery during its time. The museum inside, narrates the history of the neighborhood which is predominantly Catholic and also presents interesting information related to the heritage status of Sault-au-Récollet. History aficionados simply cannot leave this one out of their itinerary while visiting Montreal.
