Pravda Vodka Bar

"From Russia with Vodka"

It's a throwback to Russia's Iron Curtain era, but there's nothing cold about this bar. Outfitted in plush red banquettes with gold accents throughout the decor, the 3-level space evokes some kind of historic glamor. The combination of exposed brick walls and hanging chandeliers is interestingly juxtaposed next to images of defining Russian figures like Lenin, Putin and Stalin. Featuring two bars, Pravda showcases an impressive collection of bottles with myriad vodkas to choose from. Slip down with Happy Hour featuring complimentary appetizers and cheap martinis Mondays through Thursdays.

Amsterdam Bicycle Club

"Summertime Music Venue"

Next door to the Old Spagetti Factory on The Esplanade, The Amsterdam Bicycle Club is a vibrant bar and a popular, neighborhood nightly haunt. With a friendly staff, a great, youthful vibe and several cocktails, brews and spirits on the menu, The Amsterdam Bicycle Club, has emerged exceedingly successful since its inception. The live music entertainment is quite the crowd-puller, especially during summers, when the patio makes for a pleasant seating arrangement. The event list is pretty varied here, with funk, indie and rock bands dominating the schedule; besides which there are karaoke nights when the local denizens show up in large numbers. The food menu is rife with usual suspects like salads, burgers and sandwiches. All in all, The ABC, as the locals call it, makes for a fun night.

The decor around the bar hints at themes and characters from the beloved books; keep an eye out for things like the Deathly Hallows symbol or deer head patronus hidden around the bar.
