The Ballroom

"All-in-One Entertainment Spot"

A memorable and unique experience awaits you at the Ballroom Bowl Bar and Grill. A comprehensive entertainment complex, the Ballroom combines the joys of a bowling alley, a bar, and a music venue, to present something that is outstandingly original and so different from the usual recreational venues in the city. Spread over two spacious floors, this venue can accommodate up to 900 guests, and can be rented for a variety of private and corporate events. So, whether you are in the mood for bowling, or watching an intriguing hockey match, or listening to some great bands, the Ballroom Bowl, Bar and Grill is your destination. See the website for more information.

P.J. O'Brien's

"Irish on Colborne"

If you were searching for an authentic Irish bar in Downtown Core, this St. Lawrence bar ends your search. Blending splendid decor with the traditional Irish Bar feel, P. J. O'Brien's is easily one of the most popular bars around the neighborhood. Armed with a great, long list of draughts, single malts, whiskys and a selection of wines, O'Brien's has something for everyone. You can choose to sip on your refreshing pint or go for a flavorsome single malt, if beer just won't do; if that isn't interesting either, there are plenty of cocktails on offer too. The food menu is just as diverse with several finger foods like chicken wings, hand-cut fries as well as the usual salads, sandwiches, pastas and burgers that usually pass off as pub grub. Nevertheless, everything on the menu is delectable, the service is pretty attentive and the live music entertainment provided is quite awesome; stop by with a couple of friends, to have a good time.
