

"Best Specialty Bars in Toronto"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 3 Locations Bookmarked

📷 by Public Domain ©

Guu SakaBar

"Flavors of Japan"

Step into Guu SakaBar and get transported right to Japan. The setting is authentically Japanese, with low seating and plain wooden low tables. The Tofu Steak, which is fried tofu with mushroom sauce and Yaki Udon, which is pan fried udon noodles with beef, mushrooms and scallion are wildly popular. The restaurant is located smack in the middle of Koreatown and is easily reachable by public transport. So the next time you're in town, drop into Guu SakaBar for a flavorsome Japanese experience.

📞 +1 647 343 1101

🌐 www.guu-izakaya.com/sakabar/

📍 559 Bloor Street West, Toronto ON

📷 by Public Domain ©

Yuzu No Hana Sushi and Sake Bar

"Sushilicious!"

Yuzu No Hana Sushi and Sake Bar is a perfect place to enjoy fresh sushi. This sushi bar is a favorite among locals as well as tourists owing to its authenticity. Some of the must try dishes at Yuzu are Albacore tuna- a dish that will instantly melt in your mouth, Gyoza- a preparation that is juicy and flavorful, the classic Salmon roll, some rice dishes like Yam roll or Salmon and Avocado. Complement your food with some warm sake. Yuzu is a delight for a true sushi lover, the food served here is fresh from the ocean, with deliciousness oozing out of every bite. The ambiance is quite serene and romantic, perfect to have quiet conversations with a loved one.

📞 +1 416 205 9808

🌐 yuzunohana.ca/

✉ info@yuzunohana.ca

📍 236 Adelaide Street West, Toronto ON

📷 by Will Shenton ©

Black Dice Cafe

"Ticket to the Past"

Black Dice Cafe is a bar with a distinct nostalgic aura, right from its vintage doors, and old motorcycle headlights adorning the tables, to the 1950s British Rock and Rockabilly music blaring from its antique jukebox. The television screen is tuned onto American classic films, while Rock 'n' Roll posters from the 1940s are plastered onto its aqua walls. Despite this heavy influence of British and American culture, Black Dice Cafe doesn't lose its quintessential Japanese character. It is best known for its Wasabi pea dishes and cocktails infused with premium sake. The menu includes Kahlua Espresso Martini, Plum Wine, Ritz Crackers spread with Brie cheese and Peach Crumble served with ice cream. Do not miss playing exciting games on their popular pinball machine.

📞 +1 647 500 6592

🌐 www.blackdicecafe.com/

✉ blackdicecafe@yahoo.ca

📍 1574 Dundas Street West, Toronto ON

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com

