

"Best Movie Theaters in Toronto"

Created by: Cityseeker

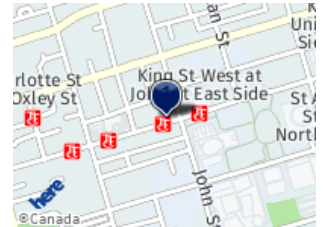

📍 4 Locations Bookmarked

TIFF Bell Lightbox

"For Film-Enthusiasts"

Occupying an entire block in the heart of Toronto's cultural district is the famous TIFF Bell Lightbox which boasts a cinema, studios and galleries which display works of art related to cinema. Visitors here are often astonished by the mammoth collection of world cinema that is screened.

📷 by Raysonho @ Open Grid
📞 +1 416 599 8433

🌐 tiff.net/visit/

✉ customerrelations@tiff.net

📍 350 King Street West,
Reitman Square, Toronto ON

The Regent Theatre

"Movie Times"

The Regent Theatre has been around for quite some time. Visitors can view latest Hollywood blockbusters and regional favorites at the sprawling auditorium. For an enjoyable experience, sit back and relax with caramel popcorn and a milkshake. Call for screening times and bookings or check the website.

📷 by jonseidman ©
📞 +1 416 466 4400

🌐 www.theatred.com

✉ info@theatreD.com

📍 551 Mount Pleasant Road,
Toronto ON

The Fox Theatre

"Movies Galore!"

Inaugurated in 1914, Fox cinema is the oldest movie house in the city. A throwback with only one screen, it would definitely be out of place next to a modern Megaplex, but here in the Beaches district of the city it gets two thumbs up. Mixing Hollywood mainstream movies with the cult-classics of yesteryear, the Fox provides two shows daily with a Sunday afternoon children's matinee.

📷 by John Vetterli ©

📞 +1 416 691 7335

🌐 www.foxtheatre.ca/

✉ andy@foxtheatre.ca

📍 2236 Queen Street East, At
Beech Avenue, Toronto ON

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com