Diner Deluxe

"Back to the 1950s"

Serving a whopping 1250 eggs benedict a month, it's no wonder Diner Deluxe is always crowded. Styled in a very 1950s fashion, this humble diner caters to people looking for real wholesome food that feels like it came out straight out of mom's kitchen. What's better is that they have a weekly menu that offers something special, each day of the week. Those who wish to sample their legendary meatloaf and Grilled Cheese Sandwich will need to get in line, as this place gets pretty busy during the day. So much so that they refuse to take reservations or even entertain a group of more than six. But it's all worth it!

Red's Diner

"Favorite Breakfast Place"

Located in Beltline in the midst of the eclectic restaurant scene in the city, Red's has a significant amount of competition. But the diner has already distinguished itself from the others thanks to its refreshing approach to being an excellent place for breakfasts and lunches. Everything about the diner is well thought-out right from the cheerfully bright interiors and contemporary decor, atypical of a breakfast place to the artful touches throughout (check out the bright pink sofa outside). The exposed brick walls add great charm to the warmly lit interiors. The menu is comprised of breakfast favorites from eggs to sandwiches. A number of vegetarian and healthy options on the menu cater to the health-conscious. With the breakfast menu being available all-day and a dedicated lunch menu of salads, burgers, poutine and much more, Red's is one of the best places for breakfast in the city.

Galaxie Diner

"Breakfast Until Sundown"

This cool little eatery is pure retro and offers great breakfasts at some of the best prices in town. They can seat about 20 at a time and are only open until 4 pm, so get there early. They specialize in breakfast treats that include scrambled eggs with cheese, mushrooms and green pepper served with hash browns, as well as breakfast burritos and delicious homemade hamburgers, soups and salads. They serve milkshakes the old-fashioned way, in large glasses with a stainless steel cup for the extra bit of shake.
