Minas Brazilian Steakhouse

"Brazilian Style Steaks"

One of the most wildly popular restaurants in the city, Minas Brazilian Steakhouse is a casual venue that serves delightful steaks and cuts made by premium quality meat. The restaurant specializes in rodizio, a traditional art of barbecue that results in beautifully grilled meats. Enjoy the Brazilian-style grilled meat and the juicy vegetables that are served on skewers at the table. The staff is competent and service is quick, which when combined with the spacious and well lit interiors, makes it a perfect place for a grand but affordable dinner.

Wah Pek Chinese Herbs Co. Ltd

"An Oriental Delight"

Chinese herbs are not the only delight you'll find in this fascinating grocery. At first glance you are reminded of a candy store from the 1950s. However, those huge glass jars are full of some curious dried treats rather than traditional candies. You will find Western oddities such as Royal Jelly and shark's fin, as well as more recognizable teas and prawn crackers. There are also dried mushrooms everywhere you look. Wah Pek Chinese Herbs Co. Ltd. is the place to indulge in oriental flavors. Call for more information.

Kensington Wine Market

"Large, Friendly Wine Market"

This large and unpretentious wine shop is a joy for wine-lovers. The selection is vast, with most of the world's wine producing regions well represented, and staff favorites are labeled with tasting notes. The beer fridge is well stocked with microbrews and many specialty imports. There is also a large selection of premium whiskies, spirits, ports and champagnes. The Market offers free tastings on Saturday afternoons, and for those who don't know their semillon from their sangiovese, there are introductory courses too.
