Los Bisquets Bisquets Obregón

"Local Flavor"

Los Bisquets Bisquets Obregón is a local chain of restaurants in the nation. Their branch on Calle de Tacuba is a nice spot for breakfast, lunch or dinner. Their menu consists of tortas, sandwiches, enchiladas, tacos, meat bisquet (meat rolls), chicken, soups, salads, breakfast specials, pastries, fruit juices and non-alcoholic beverages. Their prices are reasonable as well.

Restaurante Bar Café Tacuba

"Serving Traditional Mexican Cuisine Since 1912"

This traditional restaurant serves typical Mexican food, and has been the subject of many local legends and a song (it is said there is a ghost hanging around the place). Established in the 19th Century, it has been visited by many personalities including presidents and artists. The decor consists mainly of Talavera tiles, covering the Colonial-style building. Wooden hand-made furniture in traditional colors such as orange and royal blue add a festive touch. Music plays while you enjoy the delicious Mexican delicacies: enchiladas, tamales or freshly baked sweet bread.

Ca'Churro

"Churro Delights"

Aptly named, Ca'Churro is a local cafe that is known for their delicious churros. This choux pastry snack is a deep fried till it becomes crunchy. This cafe serves both savory and sweet versions of this dish. Their menu also crepes, fritters and pancakes. Enjoy your meal with a cup of hot coffee.

La Mansión

"Mexican Meat Fest"

Synonymous with a great dining experience, La Mansión is the place to be for bite of the classic steak. The moment you enter this restaurant, the irresistible aroma of charred makes you want to dive into your meal as soon as it arrives. Take your pick from the succulent varieties of beef and pork steaks, and be prepared to have your taste-buds break into a tingling frenzy. The food served here packs a hefty punch of flavor, and always manages to surpass your expectations, no matter how high they might be.

San Angel Inn

"Charming 18th Century Hacienda"

This restaurant has enjoyed a long tradition in the area of San Angel in the south of the city. It is situated in a Colonial hacienda, and its varied menu continues to make it a choice spot for dining. It is ideal for both families and business events. House specialties include Crepas de Huitlacoche (crepes filled with corn truffle), Chiles Rellenos (poblano peppers stuffed with cheese and ground beef), Robalo a la Veracruzana (filet of sea bass with green olives, tomatoes and vegetables). Wandering musical trios add to the ambiance. This restaurant was the winner of a Dirona Award.
