Centro de la Imagen

"Mexican & International Photographer Exhibitions"

For photography buffs, this is a good gallery to check out, known for its many temporary exhibits along with the permanent collection. There are four or five annual temporary exhibitions as well as the "Fotoseptiembre" which is held in September, exhibiting works by local and international photographers. Well-known masters of the photographic arts often conduct courses here, which is a real masterclass for those who are serious about their calling.
