Best Western Karl Johan Hotell

"Tradition on Karl Johan"

This hotel is located on the city's main shopping street - Karl Johan. With the Royal Palace, the Norwegian Parliament and the National theater as next-door neighbors, there is no doubt that this hotel's central location attracts both leisure and business travelers. By retaining its original classic style, the hotel has managed to maintain an old-fashioned early 20th-century feel. There is also a pleasant restaurant on the second floor.

This is a first-class hotel that upholds a high international standard. It has tradition and a classic style, and is located right in the very heart of the city, its closest neighbor being the Nationaltheatret. The interior is new, but the atmosphere and service are old-fashioned. The same family has been running the hotel for four generations and is very proud of its membership in The Leading Hotels of the World. Restaurant Theatercaféen has its share of traditions that give the place a special atmosphere.
