Baltazar

"Central, Next to Oslo Cathedral"

At Baltazar you can dine in the historical surroundings of the old Bazaar, directly behind Oslo Cathedral. The interior of this restaurant is simple, but the curved room and the subdued light create a sheltered atmosphere. The menu is international, with an emphasis on Italy and other Mediterranean countries. Seafood as well as meat dishes are served here. After your main course, do try the cheeses.

Klosteret

"Great Food in Holy Surroundings"

Those who appreciate great food should look no further. Guests dine in the light of 300 candles, the only source of light in this intimate basement restaurant, aptly named The Convent. The dining room is located in a spacious cellar with a vaulted brick ceiling. The interior has been specially designed to create the perfect romantic atmosphere and the walls are adorned with religious icons and paintings. The menu, written on monastic scrolls and covered with hand-woven fabric, offers a variety of meat and fish dishes as well as a daily vegetarian dish. Dr. Kneipp's

"Cozy Wine Bar"

Dr. Kneipp's is something of a misnomer since it is a popular wine bar inspired by a famous German doctor. Don't let the name delude you from enjoying the fabulous wines from all over the world especially Italian. This cozy bar was established in 1991 and conceptualized after the Italian Enoteca, where the best of wines is offered at an affordable price along with food that complements the drink. With over 400 brands, good food and an unpretentious atmosphere, the wine bar is a local favorite, hence reservations are mostly not accepted here. You can linger here as long as you want to with great wine and food for company.
