Cafe Flottenheimer

"Dessert Kitchen"

Located in the center of the city, this restaurant gives you a break from the commercialized places with rustic decor and pocket-friendly prices. On a sunny day you could sit on the beautifully crafted wrought-iron chairs outside and soak up some rays. The inside is cozy and a nice place to go to if you want to relax with friends. The fare consists of mainly brunch items and scrumptious desserts. So come over on a lazy morning, sip some exotic tea and grab a delicious meal to go with it.

Café Norden

"Coffee by the square"

Located on the Amagertorv, Café Norden serves as a great place to meet over coffee and bites. The bi-level cafe's interiors are a charming affair, with old-school lanterns and beautiful wall murals making an appearance throughout the space. The food menu is fairly extensive and offers everything from the traditional smorrebrod to Nordic tapas and sandwiches. There's a dedicated brunch menu as well. The coffee at Norden is first-rate and served by a talented team of baristas. Apart from this, the drinks menu offers smoothies, milkshakes, cold drinks as well as wines and cocktails. In summers, the cafe offers outdoor seating in the square. Check website for more.

Chicky Grill

"Good Old Grills"

Grilling is one of the most common fastfood before pizza, shawarma etc. came to town. Thus, it is of no surprise that Chicky Grill has caught the eyes of many in Copenhagen. Located in the famous Meatpacking District, Chicky Grill, serves some of the most lip-smacking grilled food you will ever find in the city. A must visit!

Al-Diwan

"Inexpensive Indian Cuisine"

Since having been founded in 1996, Al-Diwan (meaning "cozy sitting room for royal guests") has placed itself amongst the leading and most respected Indian restaurants in town. This is due partly to the high quality of its very spicy Tandoori and Biryani dishes from the Indian and Pakistani cuisines, and partly to its unusual selection of traditional Indian/Pakistani desserts.

Coffeeshop Månefiskeren

"Bacon, Eggs & Art"

This nonalcoholic coffee shop functions as a cafe, pool room, and restaurant. Breakfast is a must, as they claim to have the best bacon and eggs in town. After 1p, they serve a wide range of sandwiches and cakes. On their walls hang the works of local artists, and new pieces are featured every month. See their website for further details.
