Greasy Spoon

"American Diner Experience"

Tucked away in the Danish capital's, Latin district, the interestingly named Greasy Spoon offers a fun diner experience that will have you coming back for more. The place is a great blend of mood-lit bistro and traditional American diner, a concept that is mirrored in the menu thus offered. The focus is on All-American comfort food that never fails to bring expats and tourists in droves! Top picks here include Big Cheeseburgers, onion rings, and the strawberry milkshake (lots of delicious milkshakes on offer here). The prices are affordable, the service is friendly and the offerings are quite tasty.

Max

"Mouthwatering Burgers!"

Max is a popular restaurant chain in northern Europe delighting patrons with their delectable burgers and other scrumptious fast food specials. The Gammeltorv location of the chain is frequented by locals and travelers alike, they come here for a quick bite before heading out on their escapade through the city. At Max, burgers definitely steal the focus, they are created with the use of freshest possible ingredients and the meat patty is succulent and juicy enough to coax for one more! Beverages like colas and milkshakes best complement the fast food fare.

The Bronx Burger Bar

"American Steakhouse"

If you are looking for a taste of American burgers in a city full of Danish places, come to this restaurant. Not only can you build your very own American burger with a choice of burger, topping and dip but you can also enjoy it in a relaxed, laid back environment that brings to mind an American steak house. You can also opt for nachos and salads if you are not in the mood for a heavy burger. To complete the American burger experience, you can sip some American beer, Dr. Pepper or soda with your meal.
