Stasia

"Elegant Wear"

Stasia is one of the most popular designers in Copenhagen. This shop is located on Kongens Nytorv and has been around for many years. This is where many upper-class ladies buy their dresses when they are going to a big ball. You can buy the clothes you can see in the shop, or have them specially designed for you. If you choose the latter option you can easily end up paying in the thousands. They also design wedding dresses, which are just as beautiful as the rest of the outfits.

Samarkand

"Leave Your Hat On"

The cozy Østerbro area is home to the unique Samarkand, more of a workshop than a shop. Here they specialize in designing and making beautiful and fantastic hats. The owner imports the materials from all over the world. The style and color of the hat you order can be exactly as you like it, but most are inspired by fairy tales from the East. The hats are made to measure and take about 10 hours to make. If you are buying a hat here, you will probably end up paying a hefty sum, but it will be worth every penny.
