Casa Caminho do Corcovado

"Beautiful Surroundings"

Nestled in the Floresta da Tijuca (Tijuca Forest), this picturesque B&B was built in 1906 and has been a refuge to many over the decades while visiting Christ the Redeemer or the national park. Casa Caminho do Corcovado is perched on a tiny mountain and you have to climb some stairs to reach your destination. This charming accommodation has a bungalow and two rooms with modern amenities such as WiFi, air conditioning, TV and a minibar. Ideal for a romantic getaway, Casa Caminho do Corcovado has a rustic setting and is not for those looking out for some luxurious treatment. Avail of the airport shuttle service since it is located in a remote area.

Rio Dolphin Inn

"Good Things Come in Small Packages"

Housing only three rooms, this place may look cramped, but don't let the size dishearten you, as a stay at Rio Dolphin Inn is truly an experience. Walk in through the doors, and you will be taken in by the myriad of colors and designs. The decor gives you a feel of being underwater with posters and paraphernalia of sea creatures adorning this place. Cindy and John, owners of Rio Dolphin Inn, will pamper you in the warmth of their home. Equidistant from Copacabana and Ipanema beaches, this hotel enjoys an ideal location amidst various restaurants, bars and shopping outlets.
