Restaurante Hachiko Contemporâneo

"Great Sushi & Interesting Conversations"

Hachiko in Downtown Rio is one of the most popular sushi bars in the city. Serving a wide range of Japanese food with pan-Asian undertones and a strong western influence, the restaurant is essentially a contemporary, fusion affair. Uber chic meets the exotic East at this joint, which features traditional-looking bamboo bar-stools, wooden tables and chairs against a backdrop of intense crimsons. Buzzing with people and positive energy, Hachiko is a great place for amazing food and interesting conversations.

Le Blé Noir

"Crepes with Class"

Candlelit tables, an intimate atmosphere, and delicious food combine to make Le Blé Noir a favorite spot for romantic types to bring their dates. French chef Alain Caro has taken the idea of a creperie to new heights - here there are almost 80 varieties, all created with Blé Noir, a type of dark flour that is naturally gluten-free. The result is deliciously light, and the choice of fillings will have you pondering the menu for quite some time. One indulgent choice combines French mushrooms with white wine, cream and palm hearts, while dessert fillings include seasonal fruits with toasted almonds.

Satyricon has been a delight to seafood lovers since its opening in 1983. They do have a small section in their menu for meat eaters and vegetarians in the form of risottos and pastas. Pair your dishes with a wine from their wine cellar which boasts more than 500 labels of vinos. The restaurant is large, pleasant and always full, and is one of the preferred places of artists, businessmen and politicians

BB Lanches

"Give Me Thy Juice!"

BB Lanches is considered by many to offer the best fresh juices in Rio- quite the achievement in a city with a juice bar on every street corner. Popular with the young and trendy due to its very late opening hours and location in upscale Leblon, BB Lanches offers over 50 varieties of fruit to its customers. Particularly good here are the vitaminas (fruit juices mixed with milk) and the acai, a type of Amazonian berry that is served icy cold with fruit and/or granola. Feeling peckish? There's also a good range of simple snacks, from cheese and turkey sandwiches on wholemeal bread, to well-made hamburgers.

Delírio Tropical

"The Best Salads in Rio"

Delírio Tropical is a restaurant of varied foods, to say the least. It has a menu with over 200 items to choose from! Unlike the menu, the food is light and a perfect option for people looking for a healthy meal with great taste. For the traveler on a strict diet, there is no better option than Delírio Tropical. The salads are excellent, but hot plates also make up the menu with house favorites like roast beef, Salmon burgers, and salty pies. The sweets here are also an attraction for the tastebuds, serving a variety of crepes, pies, fruits, cakes and ice creams.

Rio/Brasa

"Excellent, Reasonably Priced, Steakhouse"

All Brazilian churrascarias (steak houses) work similarly: for a fixed price you get an all-you-can-eat buffet and salad bar plus a big selection of meats (beef, chicken, pork) brought to your table (you pay for drinks and deserts separately). Barra Brasa does the same, but for a little less than the others, while maintaining great quality. Weeknights the fixed price is R$49.20, going up to R$56.90 on weekends and holidays (kids 5 and under free, 6 to 10 pay half). The environment is family-oriented and includes a play center to keep the little ones busy.
