Bar Urca

"Beers by the Bay"

Too few of Rio's eating and drinking spots make the most of the city's extraordinary natural beauty, but Bar e Restaurant Urca is one place that really utilizes its location's potential to the full. Meals and drinks are prepared inside the restaurant itself, while tables and chairs are situated across the road, right by the waves. Colorful bobbing fishing boats complete the scene, as drinkers and diners relax in this tranquil neighborhood. Urca serves good, traditional Brazilian meals (including a Saturday feijoada), and there's also a good range of bar snacks and light meals – the cod balls and the seafood soup are both delicious.

Satyricon

"Seafood Paradise"

Satyricon has been a delight to seafood lovers since its opening in 1983. The seafood here is simply superb, especially the lobster, shrimp and squid, which is grilled and served with memorable sauces. Choose your fish, lobster and crab from the counter that is caught fresh and get ready for a delish meal. They do have a small section in their menu for meat eaters and vegetarians in the form of risottos and pastas. Pair your dishes with a wine from their wine cellar which boasts more than 500 labels of vinos. The restaurant is large, pleasant and always full, and is one of the preferred places of artists, businessmen and politicians
