Nova Capela

"Food for the Party People"

This unpretentious bar in the heart of Lapa is a lifeline for hungry party-goers. Open 18 hours a day, seven days a week, the 100-year-old bar serves wonderful bar snacks such as crispy bolinhos do bacalhau (codfish balls) as well as hearty main meals. The lamb with brocolli rice and garlic has been named best bar dish in Rio by the Brazilian guidebook Guia Quatro Rodas and makes a perfect stomach-filler before a night out in the clubs and bars of Lapa. Head here at the start of the night for a tasty dinner, then do as the locals do and pop back in again at 4a for a sunrise beer and snack before making your way home.

Tereze

"Food With a View"

Rio's wealthy elite flock to this upscale restaurant in leafy Santa Teresa to enjoy fine food and even finer views. Head Chef Damien Montecer has previously worked with Michelin-starred British Chef Gordon Ramsay, and here he serves immaculately presented pan-national dishes to a monied clientele. Tereze is housed within the elegant confines of Hotel Santa Teresa, and offers panoramic views over Guanabara Bay and Central Rio.

Restaurante Hachiko Contemporâneo

"Great Sushi & Interesting Conversations"

Hachiko in Downtown Rio is one of the most popular sushi bars in the city. Serving a wide range of Japanese food with pan-Asian undertones and a strong western influence, the restaurant is essentially a contemporary, fusion affair. Uber chic meets the exotic East at this joint, which features traditional-looking bamboo bar-stools, wooden tables and chairs against a backdrop of intense crimsons. Buzzing with people and positive energy, Hachiko is a great place for amazing food and interesting conversations.

Satyricon

"Seafood Paradise"

Satyricon has been a delight to seafood lovers since its opening in 1983. The seafood here is simply superb, especially the lobster, shrimp and squid, which is grilled and served with memorable sauces. Choose your fish, lobster and crab from the counter that is caught fresh and get ready for a delish meal. They do have a small section in their menu for meat eaters and vegetarians in the form of risottos and pastas. Pair your dishes with a wine from their wine cellar which boasts more than 500 labels of vinos. The restaurant is large, pleasant and always full, and is one of the preferred places of artists, businessmen and politicians
