Fiorino

"Rustic Italian Feast"

Rio has its fair share of excellent Italian restaurants. Fiorino on Avenida Heitor Beltrão in Barra da Tijuca is one fine example of this. Serving an authentic Italian feast made with the freshest ingredients available, the joint is associated with Bologna's prestigious organization Accademia Italiana Gastronomic. Housed within a romantic, old house in a residential neighborhood, Fiorino offers a delectable grub that is both visually and gastronomically appetizing. Needless to say, a visit here warrants a happy customer!

Bar do Mineiro

"Lively Spot in Santa Teresa"

Known for its reasonably-priced drinks and large portions of home-cooked food, Bar do Mineiro is one of Santa Teresa's liveliest spots. The feijoada is the highlight of the menu, and the various pastéis are good, too. Drink options include beer and the ever-popular caipirinha.

Casa Cavé

"Hiding Out at Cavé"

The oldest coffee shop in the city, Casa Cavé is a haven of calm amid the chaos that is downtown Rio. Stepping inside the regal building, which dates back to 1860, is like taking a step back in time. Chandeliers hang from the high ceilings, lace tablecloths adorn the tables, and waiters serve deliciously decadent cakes, pastries and assorted sweet and savory treats alongside steaming pots of coffee and tea. The delicious sandwiches, soups and of course, cakes are a draw in themselves, and the genteel ambiance makes Casa Cavé the perfect place to relax and unwind after a hard day's shopping or sightseeing.

Confeitaria Colombo

"A very popular place"

The place offers simple service, but the atmosphere is pleasant and inviting. It opens for lunch, with a fixed buffet or a la carte, and also serves small and tasty snacks and savouries, and the sweets are not to be missed! It is charming in an unusual Belle Époque style.

Sorvete Itália

"Delicious, Refreshing Ice Cream"

In the baking heat of Rio in the summertime, it's no wonder locals flock to this ice cream parlor in Ipanema. Close to the beach, Sorvete Italia serves more than 50 different varieties of ice cream, alongside ice lollies, tarts and a handful of other desserts. The indulgent Gold line includes scoops of delicious ice creams such as Crunchy Macadamia Nut and Brownie and Dark Chocolate, while those with an eye on their beach bodies can take their pick from the Diet and even Superdiet ranges, featuring low-cal versions of favorites such as mango. Simply can't decide? Feel free to mix and match flavors.
