RioSul

"Large Urban Shopping Center"

The first large shopping center in Rio, it is one of the preferred shopping areas for tourists and locals alike. Located between the beaches and the city center, it has a large parking garage and is served by taxis and special buses that stop at all the hotels on the beachfront. There is an infinite variety of stores that sell everything from clothes and accessories to house ware, toys, CDs, souvenirs, books and electronics, including state-of-the-art home theatres and digital cameras. Scattered over its floors there are restaurants for all tastes and budgets, and fast-food places. Other services include beauty parlours, pharmacies, cinemas, a complete fitness centre, a travel agent, and a bank. While you take a break from shopping, enjoy one of the many events that take place here, like free concerts and book launches, or even pay a visit to Santa's grotto throughout December. There are some cash dispensers that will issue local currency for those who have an international credit card.

NorteShopping

"Budget Shopping Spree"

If the high prices at the stores in Rio's touristy Zona Sul have your head spinning, get off the beaten track and head for NorteShopping in the north of the city, where prices are far more down to earth. And after browsing for fashion bargains, shoppers can refuel at one of the many bars and restaurants in the mall's food court, before taking in a film at the in-center multiplex cinema or enjoying a spot of culture by taking in a show at the theater.

Shopping da Gávea

"Elegant Shopping Center"

With businesses including antique-dealers, jewelers, boutiques, interior decoration specialists (the place's major focus), art galleries and toy stores, Shopping da Gávea is, without a doubt, the commercial heart of the district. In operation since 1975, the shopping center also features theaters, good restaurants and some fast-food places, as well as a bank. Underground parking garage for 250 vehicles.
