

"Best Chinese in Honolulu"

Created by: Cityseeker

📍 5 Locations Bookmarked

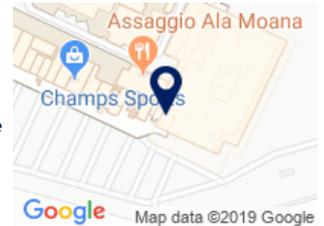

📷 by Lottie Tagupa

Bangga Bangga

"Asian Bowls in Ala Moana"

This small stand is one of an army of kiosks that are located just inside the stage side entrance to the Makai Marketplace at Ala Moana Shopping Center. Bangga Bangga offers a long list of fresh and flavorful rice bowls, salads and sandwiches that are quick and affordable. The most popular item by far is the poke rice bowl. White or brown rice covered in ahi shoyu poke with fresh toppings of daikon, sprouts and other fresh greens. Also popular is the ahi salad. It's a serving of ahi poke set in a myriad of fresh greens and topped with a flavorful Asian sauce.

📞 +1 808 941 8886

📍 1450 Ala Moana Boulevard, Ala Moana Center - Makai Market, Honolulu HI

📷 by Lottie Tagupa

Side Street Inn

"Local Hawaiian Night"

Hosted by a few of Honolulu's best chefs, this restaurant opens only after their own kitchens shut for the day. Because Side Street Inn is located on the busy industrial side of town, it's a bit on the pricey side but well worth it. Contrary to what you would expect, the food is delicious and they serve big portions. Although high in calories, everyone is a fan of the tasty menu and that's why it's sometimes hard to get a seat in this always-packed restaurant. Another definite reason to stop by is the commendable service. Side Street Inn even has karaoke nights and television sets for the sports fans, so go on and enjoy some local Hawaiian culture.

📞 +1 808 591 0253

💻 sidestreetinn.com/locations/side-street-inn

📍 1225 Hopaka Street, Honolulu HI

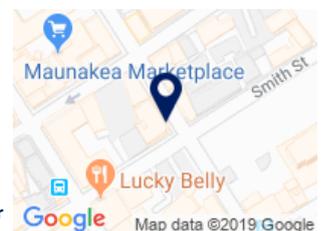

📷 by Lottie Tagupa

Char Hung Sut

"Manapua Kitchen"

Located near the corner of Smith Street in the heart of Chinatown, this small manapua kitchen is one of the islands' best know local secrets. This family-run spot has been cranking out char siu bao, siu mai and noodles for over a generation. Unfortunately, you may have to circle the block over and over to find parking to get your hands on the inexpensive and yummy goodness that they offer. However, the trick is to arrive early, especially for the flaky ma tai su. It's the perfect alternative for that family pot luck or lunch at the beach with friends.

📞 +1 808 538 3335

📍 64 North Pauahi Street, Honolulu HI

Legend Seafood Restaurant

"Chinatown Seafood"

Due to a large Chinese population, the food in Chinatown restaurants is both authentic and delicious. This Chinatown restaurant is one of the best Dim Sum places in the islands. You can feast on all kinds of seafood and meat dishes at reasonable prices. A recommendation for dinner: Seafood with Shiitake Mushrooms and Scallops. This place is brightly lit with Cantonese-style decor, with animated Chinese conversations resounding from just about every table.

+1 808 532 1868

www.legendseafoodhonolulu.com/

legendhonolulu@gmail.com

100 Beretania Street,
(Chinatown Cultural Plaza),
Honolulu HI

by Lottie Tagupa

Nam Fong

"Roast Duck, Pork & Chicken"

Nam Fong is more like a landmark as a restaurant that sells wonderful roasted items. Ask any one of the Chinatown regulars and they will tell you that Nam Fong is located at the heart of Chinatown mid-block along Maunakea Street between Hotel and North King Street. Surrounded by the likes of Chinese groceries, herbalists, restaurants and lei stands, it is easily identifiable by the ever present morning line. Locals will come from all parts of the island for a pound or two of crispy duck, roasted pork and shoyu chicken. There is paid parking lot across the street that is almost always filled, especially on Saturday mornings.

+1 808 599 5244

1029 Maunakea Street, Honolulu HI

JOIN US AT:

cityseeker.com