Deco Art

"Jewellery from 1900 - 1950"

In this shop at the Universitätsplatz (direction - Wiener Philharmonikergasse) you can find a good collection of international style jewellery from the Thirties to the Fifties. During this period, stylish jewellery was made using materials such as plastic, bakelite, rhinestone or more expensive stones. This is also why the prices vary substantially, it depends on what the piece you are thinking of buying is made of. You can also find cheaper modern pieces such as rings, bracelets, necklaces or earrings or more dear ones such as intricately decorated chokers.
