La Clémence

"Lay Back & Chill"

In the center of the dazzling city of Geneva, only a few streets from the Musée d'Art et d'Histoire, sits La Clémence, one of its well-known bars and cafes. The space is huge and is the ideal spot to relax, chat with loved ones, have a drink, and take in the energy of the busy Place Bourg-de-Four, the core of the lively Genevese café scene. During the summer, its terrace spills out onto the picturesque square, dominated by St. Peter's Cathedral and surrounded by buildings from the 16th to the 18th centuries. In the evenings, its location makes it a favorite with the young and trendy.

Lady Godiva Pub

"Traditional Pub"

The Lady Godiva Pub, tucked away in the Centre-Plainpalais-Acacias suburb, is one of the places with the largest assortment of draught beer in Switzerland. It is a terrific spot to unwind with friends and enjoy the classic pub grub, such as sandwiches and fish & chips, along with other items with a traditional British flair. The spacious bar also serves as a live music venue, featuring both prominent DJ nights and local musicians. This
