Col' Cacchio Pizzeria

"Gourmet Pizzas & Pastas"

The first Col'Cacchio opened up in 1992, and today there are over 25 of these outlets located all over South Africa. Best known for their superb range of gourmet pizzas, these restaurants offer an elegant, yet casual setting where families can enjoy a nice relaxed pizza dinner. Along with these scrumptious and savory pizzas, they also offer a good selection of freshly made antipasti, salads and pastas - all made using highest Italian culinary standards. Their Cape Town outlet is housed within The Spearhead, on Hans Strijdom Avenue; if you're hankering for a delicious pizza when in the Foreshore area, drop in sometime!

Bardelli's

"Authentic Quality Italian Food"

Bardelli's on Kloof Street, Cape Town, is an ideal authentic Italian restaurant in every sense - full of gusto, passion, family, garlic and romance. A small restaurant, Bardelli's is a hidden gem tucked away in the big city, but its warmth and flair are unmissable. The restaurant is decorated in authentic Italian style, and the fireplace is perfect for winter nights. Their pizza is made the Italian way and is rumored to be the best in the city. It is the perfect place to catch up with a friend, enjoy a family night out, or a candlelit romantic date complete with rich red wine. -Annchen Marais

Da Vinci's on Kloof

"Spirited & Authentic Italian Pizzeria"

Da Vinci's is situated on Kloof Street in Gardens, Cape Town, but might as well have been situated in Rome, so authentic is their pizza and lively, rich atmosphere. Their pizzas are made in a real wood burning oven and the mere sights and smells inside would make your mouth water. Da Vinci's prides itself on creating and presenting an eating experience that is pleasurable and enjoyable for every customer. Their friendly service, warm atmosphere and delicious hand-crafted pizzas are all you need to satisfy any craving. Da Vinci's is really a little piece of Italy in the heart of Cape Town. -Annchen Marais
