HQ Restaurant

"Stylish High-end Restaurant"

HQ is fine dining at its very best. This simple, straightforward, yet classy restaurant is tucked away in Heritage Square on Shortmarket Street, Cape Town. This almost Parisian restaurant is nothing if not elegant in every way. It famously serves one meticulously prepared dish: sirloin, accompanied by salad and French fries. There are also several delicious desserts available. The very refined, European-styled restaurant also has a bar with the best cocktails and fine wine Cape Town has to offer. Hq makes for an unforgettably stylish dining experience.

La Mouette Restaurant

"Fireplaces and Fountains"

This restaurant was started in 2010 and is located in Sea Point. Its name means seagull in French and was chosen because these birds are a common sight near the restaurant. La Mouette Restaurant serves authentic French cuisine along with a noticeable Mediterranean flair. Their excellent food is paired with a careful selection of flattering wines. The fountains in their outside courtyard can be enjoyed during the summer while the fireplaces roar in the many dining rooms, in the winter.

de Becourt french delicatessen

"Staple French Picks"

De Becourt is located on the busy Regent Road. It is often referred to by another name 'The real French delicatessen'. The gourmet restaurant lives up to its name. Open from 9a to 5.30p, the restaurant ensures that all of its food is 'home-made'. The fresh meals are often unforgettable. Both the mains as well as the desserts are very popular with the locals, especially as the prices are affordable.
