Origin Coffee Roasting

"Artisan Coffee Experience"

Origin Coffee Roasting boasts a reputation for offering arguably the best cup of joe in the whole city. Great care is taken in selecting the finest coffee beans, with a focus on the African continent, and roasting it to perfection. The skilled baristas regularly win top honors in nationwide barista competitions. Seating is available inside the old exposed brick building with the aroma of coffee permeating the interior; sidewalk seating under umbrellas is also available. Besides coffees there is also a sectioned off tearoom where an incredible selection of teas from across the world can be sampled and enjoyed. Packaged coffee and tea is available to take home and enjoy.

Bean There

"Smell the Coffee"

Bean There is a coffee roastery upon Wale Street in Cape Town, South Africa. It was the first of its kind in the country to obtain a Fairtrade certificate, inspiring many others to strive towards the same. The coffee beans travel from various places in the world to remain pure and unmixed, adding to the exclusivity and exotism of the café. The staff is friendly and happy, making it a fast favorite for meetings as well as quick takeaways.

Rcaffe

"Inviting & Friendly"

Rcaffe, located right in the heart of Cape Town's legal district, is a popular breakfast and lunchtime choice. Rumored to be the only place in the city that has true Italian-style espresso, it is a coffee lover's dream spot. They also offer a super selection of omelettes, quiches, pastas and gourmet sandwiches to be enjoyed and the pastry counter always contains a decadent selection of desserts and pastries (like phyllo cigars filled with Belgian chocolate) freshly baked on the premises. The atmosphere is always friendly and you can relax while enjoying the bohemian ambiance from mostly reused decor - a welcome relief for lawyers and politicians who frequent the venue along with locals and tourists.

Haas Coffee Collection

"Edgy & Trendy Espresso Bar"

The unique Haas Coffee Collective offers the freshest specialty coffees. With their in-house roasting of classic single-origin beans and custom blends, you are bound to have a fresh coffee experience. Haas sells the most unique and rare coffees, which sets them apart from their coffee shop contemporaries. Included in their extensive coffee menu is the sought-after Kopi Luwak brew - the world's most unusual and also most expensive coffee drink. Apart from world-class coffee, Haas also serves delicious baked goods, such as an assortment of muffins, cakes and breads. If there were one coffee shop you would want to visit in Cape Town, it would definitely be Haas Coffee Collective. -Joel Bronkowski

Truth Coffee

"All About Coffee"

Truth Coffee is committed to the cause of coffee, that is providing patrons with the best quality coffee. In fact, they proclaim that their coffee is so well balanced that you won't even need to add sugar to it. The decor is done with attention to detail, such that the setting looks like that of a factory. This gives the whole place a rustic yet comfortable charm. Food options include classics such as scrambled eggs, bagels and croissants among other items. The perfectly brewed coffee will leave you craving for more, although service can be a bit irregular at times. Go for the ambiance, if nothing else.

The Power & the Glory

"Trendy Vintage Coffee Shop"

The Power and the Glory is a quaint coffee shop and bistro bar on the corner of Kloof Nek and Burnside Roads in Cape Town. It has a comfortable, small town feel even though it's in the big city – a modern and popular combination. A seemingly random collection of items contributes to the coffee shop's vintage and rustic décor, and it all combines to ooze an easiness that is very much sought after. It is a place where you can get exactly what you're craving from a thoughtful, basic menu, and then top it all off with a few rounds of drinks. With their hip yet relaxed vibe and friendly service, The Power and the Glory has everything the trendy diner wants. -Joel Bronkowski

The Kirstenbosch Tea Room

"Like the British Do"

The Kirstenbosch Tea Room rests upon the Rhodes Drive in Newlands in Cape Town. Though established in 1924, the room was redecorated and re-established in 2005. The staff, over time, has created interested menus for different occasions, including the High Tea Party Menu, the Garden Gourmet Picnic Menu or the New Platter Menu. This variation of food items ensures that there is something for every different palate. It also has a fresh bakery and a collection of printed cookbooks.

Mill Coffee House

"Best Coffee in Stellenbosch"

The Mill Coffee House is a welcome change from traditional coffee shops in Stellenbosch. It is located on the corner of Dorp Street and Mill Street near the town center, which is walking distance from a majority of the hotels and bed and breakfasts in Stellenbosch. Mill House has what many locals consider to be the best cup of coffee in town, which is served by friendly, skilled baristas. Mill Coffee House has a rustic and historic feel with its old wooden floors and historic architecture. Mill Coffee House is open early for breakfast and also serves a wide variety of lunch dishes, all very reasonably priced. The shop is not open evenings or Sundays. -Joel Bronkowski
