Cape Town International Convention Centre (CTICC)

"Functional And Stylish"

Cape Town's International Convention Centre shines as a particularly strong venue for a wide range of events. From bridal expos, fabric festivals, business conventions, medical conferences, book fairs, World Economic Forums, the CTICC handles it all with ease. The facility houses a 10,000 square meter exhibition hall, two auditoriums that can seat over 2,000 people, 4 meeting rooms, 13 meeting suites and an exceptionally large kitchen facility, just to name a few. Check the center's website for further details.

Baxter Theatre Centre

"Experience Culture"

The Baxter was established in 1960 when the University of Cape Town inherited money to establish a theater to develop arts in Cape Town and adjacent districts. The main theater has staged local and international productions, musicals and dance. The Concert Hall, is perfect for both serious productions and experimental theater. A small studio can accommodate smaller events. The Sennheiser system provides for those with impaired hearing, and Medidrama gives free medical service to all patrons. Businessmen can host conferences and meetings at this venue.

Barnyard Theater

"A Theater With an Attitude"

The Barnyard Theater which is located within the premises of the very popular shopping center Willowbridge, is one of the most recognized theaters in Cape Town. This dinner theater does not limit itself to plays and dramas but has other events such as music festivals, rock shows, revues and more. The theater serves drinks and if required one can get their own supper to the theater, from one of the restaurants in the center. A lovely place to get an insight into what the South African culture is all about. To learn more about upcoming events, do visit their website.
